My name is Amy Crouch and I have been a proud member of the American Postal Workers Union since I started my USPS career as a Clerk in 2013. I started out as a City Carrier Assistant in August of 2013, then moved to the Clerk Craft in November of 2013. Over the 9 soon to be 10 years I've been a Clerk, I have worked in both processing plants (MPA as an Expeditor and Indy P&DC as a Mail Processing Clerk), CFS, and a few Stations and Branches (Southport P.O., Park Fletcher P.O., and Eagle Creek P.O.) as a Sales and Service Associate/Distribution Clerk.

As a member, I became fed up with Management continuously violating the Contract that protects our jobs, wages, and working conditions with little help from the previous APWU's administration. I came to the current administration and expressed how bad I wanted to give our members the representation they spend their hard earned money for. President Greg Jones appointed me as an APWU Clerk Craft Union Steward in July of 2021. Since then, he has provided myself and several other Stewards with hours and hours of certified training and has brought in Business Agents of all APWU Crafts, as well as our own Clerk Craft Director for the Indy P&DC as our instructors. With this training, my cases for the members have continued to get stronger and stronger. I am a firm believer that KNOWLEDGE IS POWER. I have been able to settle multiple cases at the lowest level of the Grievance procedure and put strong cases together for those that go to Step 3 or Arbitration. I have been actively involved in Arbitration and build every case like that is where it will end up. I leave no detail unnoticed. It takes time, but I believe our members deserve it. As your State and National Delegate, I will be able to bring issues directly from the workroom floor to the attention of the State and National Level to vote on resolutions.

The future of this administration has never looked better than it does now, and we will be able in the years to come to represent all APWU members in total. Thanks for your support and vote.
