My name is Sandra Pierce. I am an APWU member and I am for the membership. My qualifications for Recording Secretary is superb. I am currently the union steward for tour 1 at the MPA and I have been employed at USPS for 7 years, being a union steward for 6 years. I was appointed and have served at your pleasure of being the recording secretary of this administration and local since 2021. I am also the POWER (Post Office Women For Equal Rights) Chairman. The APWU POWER committee is heavily involved in community service activities. As the current Recording Secretary, I have the fundamental administrative skills to record all conversations discussed at the executive board & general membership meetings. To be transparent, and upfront to the membership as a whole. As a union steward I have successfully resolved removals with monetary relief. I have successfully negotiated letter of warnings, 7 & 14 day suspensions. I have successfully facilitated MSPB rights for veterans at USPS. I am a fighter. I am a union activist.

My love & dedication for APWU is strong!

And, I am not only part of the future, I am the voice for it!
