Harassment, hostile work environment, safety violations and much more is what is currently plaguing the Indianapolis Postal Centers. We need an individual who is not afraid to stand up and speak up against the injustice that is afflicting our APWU Members!

For far too long members have complained that no one is listening, well I am. My name is Tahjia Salmon and I am for our members. I plan to be a listening and guiding light to tackle the injustices that run rampant through our Processing Facilities and domiciled branches. I am not afraid to bring any and all grievance, accusation or complaint to either the state and national levels. Some may question my level of experience but my dedication to tackling the issues that I face in my stewardship showcases to all that not only am I courageous but, I'm not afraid to aggressively pursue any and all concerns that are thrown my way. We need change and that is where I step in. Be the change you wish to see in your facility, vote for your future,
